The result of this practiceindicates that B.Lib. students. Due to this practice, they can turn towards the library scienceeducationandcontributetotheprosperityofthelibraryprofession.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

The above four practice is donevery healthy in the college and beneficial for all. The timingis little due to regular classes of students. The students and staff were continuously busy intheirworksoit isverydifficulttoattendthe programme.

Library blogs are very useful for students knowing information about the library but there is a problem of online internet and network error.

For the Internship training students come from outside of Warud, there is a problem for up and down from their home as suitable time is very difficult to attend the training.

7. Notes (Optional)

The above for practice is very healthy in the college library organizing every year regularly. All the students and staff give full response. The students are benefited from books exhibition, library website/blog and best user award. It is helpful to sustain in higher education.
